A Fork In The Road
Psalm 1:1-6

Introduction: 1. There is much in this world that catches our eyes.
2. However, not everything that catches our eye is good.
3. Thus, we’re left with choices; decisions to make about our path in life.
4. Psalm 1 not only describes the choices we have in life, but also reveals the ultimate end of those choices.

I. The Path of the Righteous (v.1)
A. He doesn’t believe, behave like, or belong to the wicked.
B. (2 Corinthians 5:17; 6:17).
C. Note the progression: Walk, Stand, Sit (Gen. 19).

II. The Pleasure of the Righteous (v. 2)
A. You can learn much about yourself by taking note of that in which you find pleasure.
B. (Psalm 119).

III. The Prosperity of the Righteous (vs. 3-6)
A. Notice the position, productivity, and the permanence of the godly.
B. Contrast that with the ungodly.
C. Remember, not all accounts are settled now.

Conclusion: 1. We face a decision; a fork in the road.
2. Which road will you choose to travel?
3. Maybe a better question is which road have you chosen to travel?
4. Are you walking with God or the ungodly?
